1. Adam PRIBICEVIC, head of the Yugoslav Democratic Independent Party and Vladimir BELAJCIC, former head of the Yugoslav Sokol organizations, both residing in London, have compiled and transmitted to the UNO a memorandum in which they affirm that the Ustasha are freely carrying out in the world the same policy which they carried out in the former Independent State of Croatia. In the letter, PRIBICEVIC and BELAJCIC listed the names of two hundred ustasha, whom they considered war criminals, asking for their arrest and trial, because they are responsible for the killing of thousands of Serbs.
2. The list includes the name of (Dr.) Krunoslav DRAGANOVIC, head of the Ustasha in Italy who has an office in the S. Girolamo degli Illirici College in Rome and who cares for the emigration of Ustasha/members to Spain and to South American countries, especially to Argentina.
3. Early in December 1950 two young Ustasha furnished with Spanish documents, came to Rome from Madrid. They made a trip to Italy on occasion of the Holy Year and were billeted in the Antoniano College, Via Merulana 124. They are studying in Madrid on a scholarship conferred on them by (Father) Domenico MANJIC, economic general of the Franciscan Fathers.
4. Also with them was one Peter SIMIC, former Ustasha Major, who at one time was a close collaborator of the Ustasha General, MOSKOV. As is known MOSKOV in 1946 was condemned by the British to the Yugoslavs who later shot him. It seems that after the arrest of MOSKOV, SIMIC took possession of a quantity of gold
